

A career in the oil and gas industry

Logistics Manager

The purpose of this role is to support all aspects of logistics.

Your responsibility and key objectives will be:

- Providing timely delivery of equipment to site from port of discharge
- Coordinating all movement of persons to/from site by air, including seamless connections to hotels and in country flight schedules
- Responsible for legal importation, purchase and transport of explosives and radioactive sources
- Completing customs documentation and purchase orders for goods/services
- Tracking all incoming freight from external sources
- Ordering all road transport related to deliveries to drilling/operational sites
- Responsibility for insurances, workman's compensation, personnel accident and local covers as required
- Checking and authorising all invoices related to logistics, personnel movements hotels and flights
- Providing cost comparisons/quotes for requisitions

You should have a diploma in road transport or business management.

You will need:

- 3-5 years of transport, logistical and management experience
- 3-5 years of oil field specific logistics and in-country management