

A career in the oil and gas industry

Subsea Engineer

The purpose of this role is to be responsible for all design through to installation of subsea operations.

Your responsibility and key objectives will be:

- Design
- Testing
- Installation
- Operations

You should have an engineering degree.

You will need:

- 7-10 years experience of offshore project construction activities for both contractors and clients
- 7-10 years experience of subsea controls systems and subsea trees (preferably gained with supplier and operator)
- Offshore installation experience
- Well operations experience
- Subsea operations support
- ROV operations and tooling