

A career in the oil and gas industry

CSR Advisor

The purpose of this role is to develop and implement strategies for enhancing the reputation of Tullow and to build sustainable external partnerships.

Your responsibility and key objectives will be:

- External stakeholder Management
- Corporate communications and media management
- Corporate Issues Management
- Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives

You should have a degree in business or communications studies

You will need:

- At least 5 years experience in corporate or public relations and/or communications
- Advanced Communication and engagement skills
- Advanced influencing and engagement skills.
- Advanced oral and written communication skills.
- Strong Business awareness and analytical skills.
- Strong relational skills and ability to build trust.